You are applying for a job at Ferrwood Music Camp as an instructor. Please know you will be expected to interact with the children during your instructional periods. You will be expected to provide support and encouragement as well as teach theory, assess student ability, adjudicate student recitals, and provide quality music instruction. Your official hours are 9:00 - 11:30 a.m. and ensemble times which are 6-8 p.m. daily. Instructors will be asked to hold occasional master classes and small educational segments on various styles in music.

Absolutely no alcohol, tobacco or drugs are allowed on the property of Ferrwood Music camp! Alcohol, tobacco or drugs are not allowed at any time, even if no children are on the premises. Failure to abide by this rule will result in immediate dismissal from camp without pay. Under aged drinkers will be reported to the police as well as their parents, no exceptions. Instructors who are of legal drinking age will have a letter sent to their college/university or place of employment. Instructors report directly to the camp director and music director who will have full authority during the camping season. Instructors can always challenge a decision made by the director and/or music director to the President of the Philharmonic who will have the ultimate authority to render a final decision. Proper chain of command must be followed before the President of the Philharmonic is involved.

I understand the requirements of the position and I am willing to abide by the guidelines.
